News notes of local interest

Illinois Pacing Board Chairman Anthony Scario, who has reprimanded racing associations for contributing to republican campaigns, has written to two race track lawyers to seek political funds. He says the letters to help the Chicago City Council campaign of Martin Oberman were sent by mistake.

Women and blacks say the Democratic Compliance Review Commission in a 149 vote Thursday weakened their ranks in 1976 delegate elections.

Pres. Darryl Francis of the Federal Reserve Bank of St. Louis said Thursday in a New Orleans talk that the reported inflation rate of over 12 per cent in 1974 should have been 30 per cent in terms of on-going inflation. "Half the increases last year came from the impacts on one-shot boosts," he commented.

Boy, 11, hit by car, hurt critically

John Powderly, 11, of 24174 Benton St., was in critical condition today in the intensive care unit of Cardinal Glennon Hospital, St. Louis, after he was struck by an auto in front of his home at 12:10 p.m. Sunday.
Witnesses said the boy had just exited a church bus and ran across the street in front of the bus. The auto of Richard Clodfelder, Grand Rapids, Mich., was passing the bus at the time and the driver said he could not see the boy until it was too late to avoid striking him.
The center front of the auto struck the youth, knocking him several feet and onto the pavement. He was unconscious when police and ambulance personnel arrived.
The boy was taken by ambulance to St. Elizabeth Hospital in a coma. Severe head injuries were diagnosed and he was transferred to the St. Louis Hospital. It was reported this morning that he remains in critical condition and still is in a coma.

Aged tax aid veto assailed

With Governor Daniel Walker vetoing a $34 million tax cut for the elderly on Friday, Lieutenant Governor Neil Hartigan responded that the veto is a "disgrace." The governor said the tax cut bill "could result in a tax increase for every taxpayer. It's wrong to provide some relief for one group at the expense of all others."

Walker added he was vetoing it "very reluctantly, and only because this state cannot afford it."

Hartigan disagreed, taking the position that there are ample funds, that no tax hike would result, and that tax relief is vital for senior citizens whose fixed incomes cannot match inflated living costs.

Biggest grant provided under the legislation was $100, added to what the state gives to the elderly and to handicapped to help them pay their real estate taxes. Precise amount of the additional grant was to be based on the income level and the amount of rent or realty tax. The bill was passed last year by the General Assembly. There is doubt that the new legislature has authority to override the veto.

The previous "give-away" Assembly spent too much elsewhere, leaving too little for added help to senior citizens, Gov. Walker charged. He cited veto overrides on welfare costs and on state employee raises as costing $68 million.

Earlier this month, the governor approved pay hikes of

Bank stock sale

Sale of stock in the new Colonial Bank of Granite City has started. First Granite City National Bank shareholders have until Feb. 28 to buy $25 Colonial shares.

Owners of common stock of the existing bank are being given an option to buy one share of Colonial Bank stock for every three shares of First Bank stock that they own.

Organizers are Paul H. Lichtenberger, board chairman of the First Granite City National Bank; Carl A. Rantl, secretary-manager of the Tri-City Regional Port District; John W. Reese, president of Reese Drug Stores; Henry W. Ross, president of Ross Construction Co.; Jon Tarpoft, president of Tarpoft Packing Co.; and Dr. George T. Wilkins Jr., pediatrician. They are expected to be candidates for election to the board of directors.

A permit was issued for the new bank Sept. 6, 1974.

The southeast corner of Maryville and Pontoon Roads is planned as the site, and it is proposed to serve Mitchell, Pontoon Beach and northeastern Granite City.

Capital stock with $10 par value is to be issued in 40,000 shares for a total of $400,000. At the $25 offering price, proceeds to the bank would total $1 million. Distribution would be $400,000 capital stock, $400,000 surplus and $200,000

$300,000 to rebuild sewers

By HARRY BARNES
Press-Record Staff Writer
Granite City expects to receive $300,000 in flood disaster aid funds by the end of February and could receive additional flood assistance monies by April that would bring the city's total aid allocations to $1,180,000, Mayor Paul Schuler told the Press-Record Friday.

Schuler said he received assurances from federal authorities that distribution of authorized flood assistance and consideration of an appeal of disputed funds will be speeded up in view of Granite City's mounting financial problems.

Those problems result from spending regular city funds to reconstruct Nameki area sanitary sewer breaks caused by flooding in the spring of 1973.

The mayor and Lance Callis, Granite City attorney representing George Filici, city attorney, met in Washington Thursday with officials of the Flood Disaster Assistance Administration, with results that Mayor Schuler described "as even better than we had hoped."

Schuler and Callis met with William Crockett, assistant FEMA director, James Lewis and John Lundberg, FEMA staff members, and several of the agency's legal representatives in a discussion of the city's flood disaster aid program in which Granite City so far has received only $60,000.

As a result of breaks in sanitary sewer lines occurring in the Nameki area following the 1973 flooding, Granite City paid $1.6 million in reconstruction costs.

A big part of the cost for this rebuilding resulted from dewatering and bypass pumping which was overruled as part of the cost eligible for federal aid.

An engineering firm hired by the federal agency later held these costs were a legitimate part of the rebuilding, were in line with engineering practices and should be paid. The rejection of these costs, amounting to $295,000, was appealed to the FEMA by the city.

In a report on the action stemming from Thursday's Washington meeting, Mayor Schuler said:

"We began by pointing out that the city probably will run out of money about the first of March and stressed the importance of receiving monies from FEMA soon. Mr. Lewis stated that possibly an additional advance could be arranged over and above the 50 per cent that has already been advanced on eligible sewer break repairs."

"We are now eligible for $710,000 of which $355,000 has been advanced to the city. The additional advance could be as high as 25 per cent more, or 75

'Pump priming' debate

Not everyone is pleased with Governor Dan Walker's $4 billion-plus spending program announced last week. Some say it is reminiscent of "pump priming" economic programs of the 1930s Depression.

A few label the multi-page announcement as a "publicity stunt" designed more for "political hay" than an actual upsurge in job opportunities.

At one of a series of press conferences Thursday afternoon, the governor acknowledged at Bi-State Parks Airport that most of the public works projects announced were either already planned or in progress.

"It's new in the sense that the state will be putting more money into it," he commented. Projects he listed included Horseshoe Lake State Park development, a visitors' center at Cahokia Mounds State Park, the civic center and exposition hall authorized for Madison-St. Clair Counties, road and bridge improvements, a supplemental freeway route in the East St. Louis area, sewer system construction and improvements at Bi-State Parks Air College, Alton State Hospital and the Illinois Youth Center near Pere Marquette State Park.

Illinois Comptroller George W. Lindberg commented that "a number of questions must be raised and carefully examined to see what merit, if any, there is in mortgaging our children to offset what is likely to be a temporary 1.4 per cent increase

'Malpractice' costs soar

By VALERIE EVENEDEN
Press-Record Staff Writer

A sharp increase in lawsuits and jury verdicts involving physicians and hospitals is skyrocketing medical malpractice insurance premiums nationwide and has set a trend affecting many hospitals, including those whose malpractice claims are virtually negligible.

St. Elizabeth Hospital, whose medical malpractice insurance premiums have jumped $850,000 since 1974 for the same amount of coverage, is a victim of the national trend.

Executive Vice-President Ted E. Eilerman of St. Elizabeth Hospital said the premium for the hospital's comprehensive liability insurance in 1974 was $150,000.

"This month, the insurance company said the premium cost would total $1 million for the same kind of coverage given in the past," he noted.

Eilerman said the local hospital is negotiating with other insurance firms and expects a quote early this week.

Commenting that the $1 million figure is unrealistic, he said the hospital is looking into "self insuring" coverage up to $500,000 rather than pay the $1 million premium.

"We don't want to jeopardize our position by saying too much at this time," Eilerman said today. He stressed, however, that St. Elizabeth Hospital is not among the institutions whose payments for malpractice lawsuits has brought about the higher premium costs.

"The last time we paid out on a malpractice suit was 10 or 11 years ago, and the amount was $60,000," the hospital officials said.

Argonaut Insurance Co., with headquarters in San Francisco, has insured St. Elizabeth Hospital about seven years.

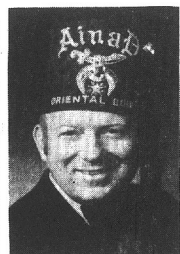

"Last year, because of our experience, plus other factors, our insurance premium was dropped from $150,000 paid in 1973 to $150,000," Eilerman said. The $190,000 figure was the top amount ever paid for liability insurance by the hospital, he pointed out.

"Usually when a doctor is

MRS. GERALD SNIDER JR., the former Miss Michelene Randall, who was married in an evening ceremony at the First Pentecostal Church in Waterloo, Ill. She is a daughter of Mrs. Shirley Fischer of Waterloo and the late Joseph Randall.

Michelene Randall and Gerald Snider are wed

Miss Michelene Randall and Gerald F. Snider Jr., were united in marriage in a double ring ceremony on Jan. 18 at the First Pentecostal Church in Waterloo, Ill.

Officiating at the evening service was the Rev. Alfred T. Darragh of Madison.

The bride is a daughter of Mrs. Shirley Fischer of Waterloo and the late Joseph Randall. Parents of the groom are Mr. and Mrs. Gerald F. Snider Sr., 7081 Meadowlane Drive.

For her wedding, the former Miss Randall chose a full length gown of candlelight double knit designed with a high rise waistline and long tapered sleeves.

A delicate lace ruffle accented the high neck and cuffs and encircled the waist of the A-line skirt.

Her shoulder length veil was held in place by a bow of bridal illusion and she carried a colonial bouquet of white daisies and greenery.

Mrs. Margaret Randall of Mehlville, Mo., a sister-in-law of the bride, served as honor attendant.

She was attired in a formal length orchid dress and carried a bouquet of white carnations.

The groom chose his brother, William Snider, as best man.

Mrs. Fischer, mother of the bride, selected a red knit dress and the groom's mother, Mrs. Snider, wore a sky blue knit gown. Both wore white carnation corsages.

Guests were received by the newly married couple at a reception in the church hall immediately following the ceremony.

The couple is now residing in Granite City, following a honeymoon trip to Missouri.

A graduate of Granite City High School, the groom is employed at Granite City Steel.

Amsted quarterly sales rise 29%

At the annual meeting of stockholders held last week in Chicago, Amsted Industries, Inc. reported that net income in its first fiscal quarter ended Dec. 31, 1974, amounted to $8,770,000, up from $2,315,000 in the comparable period last year. Earnings per share rose to $3.29 from 86 cents. Sales of $129,503,000 up 29 per cent from $100,058,000 a year ago.

Joseph B. Lanterman, chairman, and Goff Smith, president, said, "Substantially all of the sales increase was in railroad products."

They noted that this was the result of continued good demand—and prices more realistically reflecting increased production costs, not possible under government controls a year ago.

Sales of both general industrial products and construction and building products were up slightly from a year ago.

The increases resulted from higher selling prices, as physical volume declined in both of these product areas.

The reduced volume of general industrial products was primarily attributable to an eight-week strike at the Indianapolis roller-chain plant which ended in mid-November, and a two-week strike in October at the South Bend machine-tool facility.

Decreased shipments of water pipe, resulting from the substantial drop in home building, was the major reason for the lower volume of construction and building products.

Stockholders also were told that Amsted's backlog of orders at Dec. 31 amounted to $377,000,000 compared to $199,000,000 a year earlier and $367,000,000 at Sept. 30.

The majority of the increase from a year ago was in freight cars.

There have been some cancellations of freight car orders, but a backlog of about 90,000 new cars remains to be built.

Lanterman and Smith said the backlog of general industrial products is up substantially from a year ago and about equal to the Sept. 30, 1974 level.

The demand for wire rope and roller chain has shown little, if any, sign of weakness. However, some softening has occurred in recent weeks in the market for machine tools, fifth wheels for truck tractors, trailers, and powered metal parts.

The Amsted executives reported that unfilled orders for construction and building products account for the smallest portion of orders on hand and are down from a year ago and from the beginning of the current fiscal year.

In addition to reduced demand for pipe products because of the decline in housing starts, there has been slowing of new orders for precast metal for pre-fabricated buildings.

The board of directors, at its meeting, approved projects for plant and equipment totaling $37,000,000.

Included were projects to construct a new railroad wheel plant in Keokuk, Iowa, and to expand the production of the railroad specialty plant in Granite City.

It was announced previously that a wing being added to the local American Steel Foundries plant will permit higher production of railroad car products.

Additions to fixed assets were $3,000,000 in the first quarter and are expected to amount to about $20,000,000 for the entire 1975 fiscal year (October 1974-September 1975), excluding acquisitions.

Accounts receivable and inventories at Dec. 31, 1974 were up significantly from a year ago because of the higher level of business activity.

Accounts receivable would have been much higher if it had not been for concentrated collection efforts which resulted in a significant reduction in the number of days outstanding, it was related.

Amsted had no debt at the end of the quarter, compared to $13,000,000 a year ago.

Stockholders elected four directors for three-year terms and ratified Price Waterhouse and Co. as the company's public accountants.

Those elected as directors were O. C. Davis, president, Peoples Gas Co., J. B. Lanterman, chairman of Amsted, J. T. Rettaliata, chairman, Banco Di Roma (Chicago) and Edwin Walcher Jr., vice president of Amsted.

Davis was elected to the board replacing Remick McDowell, retired chairman of Peoples Gas Co., had served as a director since 1968.

At the board of directors meeting, a dividend of 80 cents per share was declared payable on March 14 to stockholders of record as of the close of business Feb. 20.

6 million motorists and 1,844 dealers in state

Enough jobs to support a city ten times the size of the Springfield metropolitan area. That's what Illinois' motor vehicles mean to the state, as indicated in a new statistical report released by Jesse W. Whitley, state relations manager of the Motor Vehicle Manufacturers Association.

Studies conducted by MVMA show that domestic manufacturers of motor vehicles, not including independent suppliers, employ 68,400 workers with an annual payroll of $992 million.

Annual taxes paid by these firms to state and local-level governments amount to nearly $28 million.

Motor vehicle makers also spend more than $1.3 billion a year with supplier firms in the state.

Illinois' 1,844 new car and truck dealers employ 42,800 persons and pay out $414 million in wages and salaries each year.

Dealers in automotive products including gasoline account for 20 per cent of all retail sales in the state.

The MVMA report points out that the manufacture, sales and servicing of motor vehicles and their commercial use in highway transport directly or indirectly account for 55,000 jobs.

Based on a national employment-population ratio, these workers and their commercial use represent a population of 1.7 million.

Many additional jobs exist in the state economy because of motor vehicle use, the MVMA relates. For example, two-thirds of the $1.3 billion spent in the state by tourists annually for transportation, lodging, food, entertainment, gifts and incidentals come from people traveling by highway vehicle.

Illinois' year-around passenger 5.8 million mark in motor vehicle registrations by adding 191,000 cars and 32,000 trucks and buses at its peak.

Registrations for 1973 were 5,095,000 cars and 722,000 trucks and buses. The number of licensed drivers in the state is now past six million.

Drivers in the state supported their highway transportation system through payment of $803 million in state and federal highway user taxes.

State taxes include over $382 million for gasoline and $296 million for motor vehicle and motor carrier user charges. Last year, the state also provided more than $244 million to the federal government in automotive excise taxes.

Employing a growing business in Illinois—with 68,400 workers employed by trucking firms receiving an annual payroll of over $741 million.

Total figures on trucking employment show that more than 340,000 make their living through truck use, with annual payrolls for their operations exceeding $3.2 billion.

Trucks make up 12 per cent of total vehicle registrations and pay 30 per cent of special state vehicle taxes.

About 12,000 school buses transport students to and from classes, and nearly 6,300 buses are used commercially in the state.

Grant store here open for business

Tom Donahue, manager of the Grant City store at Nameoki Village Shopping Center, reported last week that "We're open for business, and plan to stay open to serve our community for many years to come."

Due to a recent report announcing the closing of 66 (Grant) stores, there has been a rash of totally unfounded rumors suggesting the closing of our store.

"Those stores scheduled to close were notified in December, and are currently running 'going out of business' sales in their local newspapers, and their communities are well aware of their closing. The vast majority of Grant and Grant City stores, and there are more than 1,100 of them from coast to coast, are continuing in operation."

Donahue said, "Our sales promotion plan for 1975 are aggressive, and we will be giving our customers exceedingly good values, backed by courteous and efficient service."

Dim view of speeders

Chief of Police Ronald J. Veizer has cautioned Granite City area drivers that officers of his department will take a dim view of speeders, especially with the worst of winter still in the air.

He explained that stopping ability drops dangerously on icy streets. This is when unprepared or over-confident drivers often "lose their grip" on the situation.

Being prepared suggests the need for good tires and equalized brakes, he said. The right kind of know-how means keeping in mind, everytime you're behind the wheel of a car, the following findings based on winter driving research conducted annually under the auspices of the National Safety Council:

On glare ice, braking distances may be as much as ten times greater than that on dry pavements (something for pedestrians as well as drivers to remember). The average, with regular tires from a speed of only 20 mph, is about 150 feet from the time you get your foot on the brake pedal.

On loosely packed snow, average braking distances from a speed of 20 mph turn out to be some 60 feet. With snow on this distance is 52 feet. Reinforced tire chains cut this to 38 feet, a 37 per cent improvement.

Underinflated tires do not improve traction. This practice only reduces stability and brings on tire fatigue because of overloading.

Chief Veizer also had suggestions in the other special hazard area that rough winter weather brings about ability as a driver to see.

To cope with winter darkness and bad weather, drivers must get a head start on safety by keeping car lights in good working order; windshield clearing equipment (wipers and defrosters) operating properly. Streaking wiper blades should be replaced.

"This kind of information does not originate with me," the Chief explained. "The source is the Committee on Winter Driving Hazards of the National Safety Council. And it is recommended by the International Association of Chiefs of Police in the interest of winter accident prevention."

Accident prevention is not an insurmountable problem, Chief Veizer maintains. He promised that his department will take care of those who thoughtlessly continue to drive too fast for conditions, but the know-how part is up to each individual driver.

Two fire calls relative sense that some districts profited more than others.

"It was the rural unit districts and, to a slightly lesser extent, the rural elementary districts that gained the least from the reforms of 1973."

The report further found that dual districts were aided more than unit districts.

Cronin explained that under the higher maximum operating tax rates established by the resource equalizer (83 for unit district; $1.95, elementary; $1.05, high school), unit and elementary districts are likely to be proportionately below the maximum tax rates. Most high school districts already are at their maximum.

Dr. Cronin singled out the problems of cities such as Rockford and Springfield, which have high assessed valuations and declining student enrollment—plus voter reluctance to pass referenda.

Man is beaten

George Wendel Williams, 26, of 2905 Roosevelt Ave., was admitted to St. Elizabeth Hospital after two men beat him in his home at 7:30 a.m. Sunday.

Williams said he was asleep and awakened to see two men standing over him, one holding a club. He said the men kicked, struck and beat him severely.

He said after he was beaten, he went to find his auto and found that all the windows had been shot out. The radiator also had been damaged by three bullets.

Williams went to St. Elizabeth Hospital where he was admitted with abrasions to his face and chest.

up to 43 per cent for his department heads and also raises in legislators' salaries and expense allowances.

In late 1974, he had assailed the Assembly for refusing to provide raises for other employees under his jurisdiction.

Gov. Walker in 1973 vetoed a half-cent cut in the state sales tax. He preferred a $10-per-person distribution.

Among those commenting on Friday's tax relief veto was Comptroller George Lindberg, who said he was disappointed. He is a Republican and Walker and Hartigan are Democrats.

Hartigan, a chief promoter of tax aid for senior citizens, said he feels the new grants would have cost the state as little as $17 million in the current fiscal year, rather than the $34 million estimate by Walker.

The Senior Citizens Action Coalition, a statewide group, described the veto as "a stinging blow to elderly and disabled citizens of Illinois who already are struggling to survive the double squeeze of inflation and recession. We cannot accept the action as one in good faith."

Citing lengthy delays in receiving $17,000 in overdue emergency state reimbursements, Chouteau Township Highway Commissioner James Estes requested permission from the town board of auditors last week to sell a $20,000 anticipation warrant to keep his department operating.

Estes' department received about $17,000 last year as the first half of funds due to it, but since has been awaiting the final reimbursement check.

It has been reported the sending of the final payments was delayed by a disagreement between Eric Jones, acting state Civil Defense director, and George Lindberg, state comptroller.

North rallies to edge hosts, place third in East tourney

The Granite City High School North Steelers nipped Belleville East 54-53 Saturday on a late rally and the free throw accuracy of Mike Waldo to capture third place in the annual East cage tournament.

North met the host Lancers after posting a first-round 55-41 victory over Belleville Althoff and then losing a 63-61 semifinal game to Belleville West Thursday.

East led the Steelers 15-14, 33-25 and 40-30 at the quarters but were outscored by North 15-8 in the final period.

Waldo put his team ahead 52-51 early in the fourth quarter before East scored for a one-point margin with time running out.

With ten seconds remaining, Waldo, who was five of five from the foul line in the contest, gave North the win with two charity tosses after being fouled on a field goal attempt.

From the field, North made good 22 of 40 attempts and East 17 of 48.

North hit 10 of 15 free shots and East 10 of 27. The Steelers committed the most fouls, 21-15, but had the fewest turnovers, 13-16.

North outrebounded the Lancers 37-29.

Waldo was North's top pointmaker with 17. Gene Logas and Darrell Page each tallied 10. Greg Gauen and Tom Schocker six each, Rick Spurlock four and Larry Jones, one.

Belleville West was the tournament champion, defeating Triad 92-81 Saturday in the title game.

Althoff took consolation honors, downing Cahokia 56-47. Thursday night's 63-61 semifinal loss to Belleville West was a heart-stopper and heartbreaker.

Leading 13-12 after the first period and trailing by only 30-29 at halftime, the Steelers built an almost comfortable lead during the third quarter, which ended with them ahead 49-41.

Speedy West chipped away and caught up, gaining a 52-51 advantage while limiting North scoring with a sticky man-to-man defense.

Waldo committed an intentional foul as the Maroons inbounded the ball, and Belleville's John Harry missed the first free throw. When Harry connected on the next foul shot, five seconds remained and Logas drove down the floor.

A field goal try by Logas failed. Jones snared the ball and put it up again, but it rolled around the hoop and off as the buzzer sounded.

Rusty Lisch with 30 points and Milton Wiley with 14 paced the Maroons. For the Steelers, Jones and Gauen tallied 18 apiece, Page 10, Waldo nine and Logas, six points.

North had a 24-16 rebound edge but committed 21 turnovers to the Maroons' eight.

With 29 of 49 from the field, North hit a torrid 59 per cent. North cashed in on three of eight free throws while fouling 13 times. West was 28 of 56 and seven of nine while making 11 fouls.

Cougars claw Wisconsin five

A large, loud and enthusiastic crowd which saw the Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville basketball team coolly dominate a good University of Wisconsin-Green Bay team 82-61 Saturday night at Edwardsville Senior High was sitting in on at least two outstanding moments in SIUE hardwood history.

Number One: The victory ran the Cougars' record to 12-2, the best ever in the young school's history. Number Two: Spectators not only saw the present, but also a view of things to come as they watched a young crop of junior varsity players battle SIUE's former game greats down to the wire in the annual alumni game before losing, 88-85.

The Cougars of Coach Jim Dudley won't have any time to savor their big victory over Green Bay because Wednesday night the Leathernecks of Western Illinois University (Macomb) came calling for an 8 p.m. game at Edwardsville High. Playing—and starting—for Western is Edwardsville's own Jerry Ahart.

In the Cougars' victory over Wisconsin-Green Bay, a team which as recently as 1944 had nearly beaten SIUE but lost, 52-46, Dudley's Dandies showed early that the visitors' customary slow-down wasn't going to work this time.

Halfway through the first half, the Cougars jumped to a 24-12 lead and they raced on to a 38-20 advantage at the intermission as SIUE's splendid splinter, Keith McFarland, hit eight of nine field goal shots and was nearly matched by John Strubberg's five of seven two-pointers over the same stretch.

Strubberg and McFarland each ended up with 20 points to share game scoring honors.

Madison committed the most fouls, 19-16, but had the fewest turnovers, 16-20.

Williams again led the Trojans in rebounding, pulling down 12 of Madison's total of 38; Quincy recovered 35.

Scoring for Madison were Bradley with 20, Franklin 16, Jones 10, Williams three, Booker two and Timmons, one.

Haine and a passenger in a car, Andrew Griffin, 22, of 308 Buxton Ave., were taken to St. Elizabeth Hospital.

Haine declined treatment at the hospital, Griffin was treated for contusions and a cut to his upper lip and abrasions to his right leg. X-rays were taken and he was released.

Filing ends today in GC, park elections

Two more candidates entered the Granite City aldermanic race and a third candidate as commissioner of the Venice Park Board filed petitions as the filing deadline in those two elections grew near.

The filing period for the Granite City election and the Venice Park Board election, both to be held on April 1, will end today at 5 p.m.

New filings in the Granite City election, in which voters elect one alderman in each of the city's seven wards and a street superintendent, were Frank Vesel, 2330 Woodlawn, as a candidate for alderman in the Seventh Ward, and Glen Sprinkle, 1520 Joy Ave., as a candidate for alderman of the Fourth Ward.

Flings thus far indicate opposition for aldermanic posts in the first, fourth and seventh wards, and for street superintendent. Sprinkle is the second candidate to file in the Fourth Ward in which incumbent Alderman Claude

Hits 2 poles, driver charged

Coleman Haine, 288 Sunny Shores, was charged with driving while under the influence of liquor and illegal transportation of liquor after the westbound auto went out of control on West Chain of Rocks Road near Maryville Road in Mitchell and struck two utility poles.

Haine and a passenger in a car, Andrew Griffin, 22, of 308 Buxton Ave., were taken to St. Elizabeth Hospital.

Haine declined treatment at the hospital, Griffin was treated for contusions and a cut to his upper lip and abrasions to his right leg. X-rays were taken and he was released.

Boys robbed

A 14-year-old boy reported at 9:20 p.m. Saturday that at 25th and Benton Streets, two older boys took his paper route money, about $12, and his coat valued at $22. During the struggle the youth was hit with a metal bar.

At 9:35 p.m. a 12-year-old boy reported to police that two older boys stopped him on Edison Avenue and said, "Give us your money or we're going to beat you up."

The youth gave them an undetermined amount of money and ran to a house where he phoned police.

One of the robbers was described in the second incident, as wearing a blue parka and tennis shoes; while the other wore a green parka. Both had their parka hoods pulled over their heads to avoid recognition.

Blast source of explosive noise

A broken cooling line which permitted water to come in contact with molten metal from a casting at the blast plant of Granite City Steel resulted in a series of sharp explosions early Friday morning.

The noise, which apparently was heard for several miles, caused a flood of calls to area police stations from residents seeking an explanation of the occurrence. The incident occurred at 5:15 a.m.

A Granite City Steel spokesman said a casting at the blast plant was the apparent cause of a rupture in a cooling line near the tap hole from which water struck the molten metal. The blast furnace was closed down temporarily to clean up the area. No one was injured.

Arrest 2 after purse is taken

Stephan D. Hale, 20, of 2318 Illinois Ave., and Michael L. Bauman, 18, of 2412 Glen Drive, were arrested near K-Mart at 3:30 p.m. Sunday and charged with theft.

Barbara Green, 4112 Braden Ave., said she was walking in the K-Mart parking lot and a youth grabbed her purse and ran. She and several witnesses chased the boy to behind Central Hardware, where he was caught, it was reported.

Another youth ran to an auto and drove around the parking lot until a police car arrived, at which time the auto left the scene. Officials were told. Police stopped the car at Nameoki and West Pontoon roads and arrested the second youth.

Hale also was charged with reckless driving.

Becomes ill

Granite City firemen, using the aerial truck, were called to the railroad track tower at the 20th Street crossing at 5 p.m. Thursday to assist ambulance personnel in removing an ill man from the tower.

Officials said Jessie Bergmann, St. Charles, Mo., was working in the tower and became ill suddenly. He was taken by ambulance to St. Elizabeth Hospital where he was admitted to the intensive care unit with chest pains. He was taken out of ICU to a hospital room Friday.

Madison schools get more federal funds for lunches

An increase in school lunch reimbursement for 1975 was reported to the Madison School Board at its Thursday night meeting.

The federal government has allotted three-fourths of a cent more on all lunches, and an additional three and three-fourths cents toward free lunches. This brings the total reimbursement to 79 cents for free lunches, with 64 cents coming from the federal government and 15 cents from the state, according to Mrs. Evelyn Hol, cafeteria director.

An average week of serving about 6,961 lunches, 5,961 are served free.

The board opened the meeting with a moment of silent prayer in memory of Mrs. Gertrude McManaway, wife of the board president, who died Wednesday.

In the absence of President McManaway, Harold Pisk presided.

The board set the filing date for election of two school board members between Feb. 26 and

ARMED ROBBERY

James Micheletti, St. Louis, reported to Venice police at 1:50 p.m. Sunday that he was on the Missouri side of McKinley bridge changing a tire when a man approached him and asked if he needed help.

When Micheletti turned his back the man placed a "cold object" to the back of Micheletti's head and ordered him to give him his wallet. Micheletti did so. The wallet contained $120 in cash and seven credit cards.

Nation confident of Melvin Price's ability to handle the task of planning a strong and affordable defense

There are widespread predictions that elevation of Melvin Price to the House Armed Services Committee chairmanship will improve the prospects for expediting regional drainage, airport construction and dam replacement projects.

Certainly, such vital improvements are long overdue. If the congressman and Senators Adlai Stevenson and Charles Percy can help get them off dead-center this region and the nation will benefit.

Mr. Price's awesome new duties obviously have broad ramifications for not only America but the entire world.

As the chief beacon of liberty, the United States must maintain a fully adequate military posture while at the same time avoiding obsolescence in our weaponry and bankruptcy in our national treasury.

Quad-Cityans and all Americans share immense pride in Melvin Price's advancement to such a difficult and important assignment.

More than any other legislator, he can bring to the committee deliberations an effective blend of political and economic expertise, combining experience and judgment with intimate knowledge of defense manpower and hardware research, development and implementation.

"The committee will give a new look at almost everything," Cong. Price commented after his selection last week, adding that all 40 members will have a voice and that most matters will be referred to standing subcommittees, rather than forming new subcommittees.

The Department of Defense budget is likely to be cut, he said, indicating that he will work with the new House Budget Committee in considering the scope and pace of armaments expenditures, while simultaneously assuring that the U.S. is maintaining necessary defense readiness. Proposals to spend $300 million more for military aid to Vietnam and $200 million for Cambodia "will meet considerable opposition in the committee," he commented.

Mr. Price praised the progress that has been made in the area of arms limitations, and said he is not yet persuaded that the energy problem justifies peacetime utilization of the Navy's vast wartime oil stockpile, the Elk Hills petroleum reserve in California.

Many tough decisions lie ahead, but the veteran leader has shown a knack for calming troubled waters, inspiring those of disparate views to keep their attention on the issues and to cooperatively find solutions.

We rest more easily at night knowing that the complex and challenging assignments of defense planning and review are in such capable hands.

Tax shifts between governmental levels?

By WILLIAM STOWE
Illinois State
Chamber of Commerce

The most important issue before the Illinois General Assembly in 1975 is maintaining fiscal responsibility.

To support continued economic growth of the state, to recognize the outer limits of our state and local revenue capacity, and to maximize the return on investment in government services.

One major concern for the Illinois legislature now is tax shifting between levels of government.

While federal and state revenue sharing did not originate these shifts, it has drawn attention to them.

Because revenue sharing distributions often are regarded as gifts, we must remind ourselves that every output of government service requires an input of a tax payment by the citizen.

Therefore, the financing of previously unfunded projects with revenue sharing dollars can only serve to put additional pressure on deficit spending, or on the total tax burden.

Attempting to shift the burden of supporting state government to Illinois business is a philosophy which accelerates business relocations, prevents expansion, and contributes in the long run to economic stagnation. Yet some of that shift is apparent.

The end of the 78th General Assembly saw a late attempt to change the current 8 to 5 ratio on individual and corporate taxes by increasing the corporate tax burden from 4 percent to 5 percent.

This tax increase proposal will probably surface again early in this session also.

Another aspect of tax shifting is the constant pressure to increase the property tax burden of corporations.

Through a classification system which taxes business at a higher rate than residential property, decisions to shift property previously classified as personal into the real estate category.

This is important now in view of the impending mandate replacement of personal property tax.

The property tax rubber band

By U.S. SENATOR
CHARLES H. PERCY

Hundreds of millions of men, women and children around the world are facing hunger and malnutrition in 1975. Hundreds of thousands of them will starve to death.

The world food crisis is desperately real.

For the third successive year, as farmers in Illinois knew all too well, international production of cereals (wheat, rice and coarse grains) fell below expectations in 1974.

Reserves are perilously low in the major food exporting countries. And every day around the globe, there are 20,000 mouths to feed.

Experts agree that if millions are not to die before the next harvest, at least 7½ million tons of grain must be shipped to the countries most seriously affected by current food shortages. Such shortages are likely in Bangladesh, India, Pakistan, Ethiopia and Tanzania.

The United States alone cannot provide all of this, any more than the United States alone can feed the world.

But our government does have a humanitarian responsibility to decide how much food has been stretched to its limit.

It is the tax base less responsive to economic growth, and we continue to add to a narrow and constricted redefinition of real estate.

Narrowing this tax base will permit practical assessment reform that can be administered at the local level.

Revenue from the property tax is realized with no revenue potential for local government, due to greater responsiveness — or elasticity — of the replacement source for the personal property tax.

we can send to needy nations, and on what terms. I only hope that we will act as quickly as possible, for every day that passes is a day on which more people will die of hunger.

It is likely that a major American commitment to world food relief eventually will require some sacrifices here at home — higher budgetary outlays, perhaps, or reduced food consumption, or both.

Ultimately, only the American people themselves can decide how much sacrifice they are prepared to make for hungry people a half-world away. It is not a simple choice.

Even if the immediate, short-term problem is eased, the world still will face a food crisis.

If nothing is done to increase world food production, then many of the poorer nations will face a "food deficit" of 85 million tons in 1985; the human suffering of such shortages would be beyond measure.

The World Food Conference held in Rome in November grappled with these pressing problems.

The attending nations put together a program aimed at increasing worldwide food production, improving the nutrition of especially vulnerable groups such as young mothers and infants, and setting up a system of national food reserves under international guidelines.

The Conference also set a goal to wipe out hunger and malnutrition in the world within a decade. It was a hopeful beginning.

But realistically, there is no hope of easing — much less eradicating — world hunger until the world comes to grips with its mushrooming population problem.

For although we can greatly increase our production of food, we shall never be able to supply enough for everyone until we dramatically reduce the world birthrate.

I urgently hope all nations will do everything they can to encourage individuals and families to conceive and raise their children as responsibly as possible — and that all nations will provide them the information and the means to do so.

For if the world's population continues to grow unchecked, the results are guaranteed to be disastrous for us all.

Q. I have a charge account with a local department store. The store charges me a flat fee for each purchase. I would like to have the charge account on my balance. Is this fee or a part of it deductible as interest or other charges?

A. If you make installment purchases on a charge account on which a flat fee or service charge is made, the interest is not deductible.

The fee represents not only a charge for the use of the money but also a charge for maintaining and servicing your account. Even if the interest were determined, you may treat a portion of the flat fee as deductible interest. Such a deduction will be the lesser of either an amount equal to six percent of the average unpaid balance of your installment contract during the year, or the portion of the total fee or service charge allocable to the year. For further information on the subject, consult IRS Publication 545, "Income Tax Deduction for Interest Expense." It's available free from many IRS offices.

ILLINOIS' OUTDOOR HERITAGE

PAWPAW (Asimina triloba)

Found throughout Illinois, the pawpaw is sometimes called the wild banana tree. A small tree, or large shrub, it rarely reaches 40 feet in height. The crown is spreading, the trunk straight and slender, and its most distinguishing features are large, toothless leaves and thick fleshy fruit, which is nutritious and tastes like banana. Found in woods and thickets, often growing in colonies, the pawpaw occurs as undergrowth in the shade of rich forests. However, this species is also planted as an ornamental. The fruit is used as a source of food, while the wood itself has limited use. The flowers are green when young, then turn to maroon and grow to two inches in diameter. The flowers sometimes appear before the leaves, and smell like fermenting grapes. The state record for pawpaw is found in Williamson County, with a circumference of three feet, 10 inches.

Winter Wonderland Will youth be key to Series success?

Will 1975 bring a baseball World Series to the St. Louis area, now that the football Cardinals have shown their ability to win a divisional championship?

Resurgence in professional sports seems to be "catching" between the teams in a particular city, such as in the case of Baltimore, Oakland and now Pittsburgh.

Whether or not this is the year for the baseball Cardinals to win another championship is impossible to predict, but many objective observers seem to think 1975 could well be the year.

In any event, a look ahead to the sport of sunshine and warmth may be a good change of pace during our mid-winter weather. And the start of spring training, believably, is only a few weeks away.

The Redbirds have a basically set starting lineup but are counting on relative newcomers as well as veterans, aware that the most effective blend for a team must include youthful energy and speed as well as mature skills.

Here are notes on a few of the younger players.

Outfielder Larry Herndon, 21, stole 50 bases for Arkansas (Little Rock) in the Double A Texas League last year to lead the league with the highest total in ten years.

Herndon batted 285 in 132 games and also tied with teammate Joe Lindsey for the league lead with 13 triples.

He joined the Cardinals in September after the completion of the Arkansas season and singled off the Cubs' Tom League to teammate Herndon. He also had career highs with 10 homers and 54 runs batted in as he batted .290 in 130 games.

Murphy joined the Cardinals in September; he appeared four times as a pinch-runner and was 0 for 2 at the plate.

Doug Capilla (left-hander) and Mark Cove (right-hander) represent two young pitchers with good arms who have a good chance to make the big leagues as soon as they gain control of their pitches.

Capilla, 23, was drafted by the Cardinals from the Giants organization in December 1973. Last year at Little Rock he was 6-6 in 20 games with a 6.14 earned run average. He fanned 78 batters in 88 innings but walked 84.

Cove, 22, pitched for Modesto in the Class A California League in 1974 and compiled a 10-10 record with 21 wins and 14 losses in 138 innings, but issued 164 base on balls.

National League Rookie of the Year Bob McBride's .309 batting average, 30 stolen bases and 56 runs batted in attracted 16 of 24 votes that members of the Baseball Writers' Association of America cast for the 1974 rookie honors. Houston's Greg Maddux, who won 20 games and the Cubs' Bill Madlock, one.

For a young man who (1) has a pin in his left ankle from a high school basketball injury, (2) played no baseball at his high school in Fulton, Mo., and (3) was the 37th of 41 Cardinal picks in the June 1970 free agent draft, McBride accomplished great things in his initial season.

He teamed with Lou Brock and Reggie Smith to make up the first all-300-hitting Cardinal outfield since 1902 (only players in 100 or more games were counted).

McBride's 30 stolen bases were the most by a Cardinal player other than Brock since Frank Frisch swiped 48 in 1927.

He also teamed with Brock to set a major league record for the most thefts (48) by two teammates in one season. He had only four errors and his .990 fielding average ranked sixth among National League outfielders in more than 100 games.

McBride is completing his studies at Westminster College in Fulton, via the correspondence route. By the spring of 1976, he should have a degree, and then he plans to study psychology and physical education.

Ken Reitz, 23, another young regular, raised his batting average 30 points in 1974 (.255 to .271) while continuing his fine fielding, leading National League third basemen with a .774 average, his second fielding title in as many full seasons in the majors. He is known as the "Bombin' Machine" for his ability to scoop grounders out of the turf.

He got off to a tremendous start with the bat in 1974, going above .400 for the first month of the season and leading the league for much of the month.

Reitz was named National League "Co-Player of the Week" with the Dodgers' Tommy John April 22-28. For the week, he hit .583 (14 for 24) with three homers and three RBIs.

The Cardinals purchased the contract of Rich Billings from the Texas Rangers for their Triple A affiliate, the San Antonio Spurs, in August, and recalled Billings to the majors in September. He saw action in only one game, but should remember it.

He caught the final 13 innings of the Cardinals' historic 25-inning win over the Mets on Sept. 13. Either Ken Rader or Billings or both could serve as back-up to Ted Simmons' this season.

Last year Hector Cruz, the last of three brothers in the Cardinals' organization, spent his full first year at the Triple A level with Tulsa. The results were a .255 batting average with 11 homers and 72 runs batted in.

In 1973, he led the club in batting average (.281), runs (49), hits (70), triples (8) and runs batted in. Still considered a promising prospect, he saw brief service with the Cardinals in 1974 after a sensational year with Arkansas (Little Rock), where he hit .328 with 30 homers and 105 RBIs.

Gonzalez, a 21-year-old left-hander, made the jump to double A ball last year at Little Rock, where he responded with a record in 23 starts with a 3.74 ERA. He has racked up 24 wins in his last two seasons and continues to make good progress in the organization.

A contract trade in 1972 brought Joe Lindsey to the Cardinals organization and saw him move to the Double A level with the former Granite Cityan Dal Maxvill to the Oakland A's. The 24-year-old left-handed hitting pitcher established career highs in average (.278), homers (10) and RBI (68) last year at Little Rock and tied Larry Herndon for the Texas League lead with 13 triples.

Lindsey combined with Herndon (50) and Murphy (46) for a three-man total of 112 stolen bases.

Rounding out our youth report are comments on four 25-year-olds.

Bob Forsch will be counted on as a starter in 1975 on the strength of last season's performance. He was recalled from Tulsa in July and won 7 of 11 decisions with a 2.97 ERA and five complete games among 14 starts. Combined with his 1974 total (14-5) Bob's record for the season was 15 wins and 9 losses.

He signed with the Cardinals as an infielder and didn't turn to pitching full-time until 1971 (age 21). He has racked up 46 wins in the last four seasons to make the position switch a successful one.

Hard-throwing Mike Garman probably will get a shot at a starting berth this spring after a fine job in relief in 1974. He won 3 of 5 decisions in his National League debut and recorded the lowest ERA (2.63) among Cardinal relief pitchers, while saving six games to finish second on the team in that department.

Garman came to the Cardinals via a contract swap with the Boston Red Sox in December 1973. His 74 performance is all the more remarkable when you consider that he spent the entire 1973 season with the Red Sox, but pitched only 22 innings over 12 appearances.

Jim Dwyer was a valuable member of the 1974 Cardinals as an outfield replacement and pinch runner and will be even more important in 1975 with the departure of Jose Cruz.

Dwyer, also 25, started the season with the Redbirds but returned in June to Tulsa, where he hit .336 in 36 games. His performance in Tulsa, he returned to the Cardinals to stay later in the season. Dwyer had four game-winning RBIs in only 86 at-bats, with three coming as a pinch-hitter.

He was second on the team in pinch-hit appearances, hits and RBI.

Ray Bare will probably figure in the Cardinals' bullpen plans for 1975. The 25-year-old right-hander got off to an 11-2 start at Tulsa last season and that performance enabled him to move up to the Cardinals in July.

He appeared in 10 games and picked up his first major league win with four perfect relief innings against the Phillies Sept. 13. After posting a record, he returned to Tulsa on Aug. 9.

Bare finished with a 12-4 record at Tulsa and led the Triple A American Association with a 2.34 earned run average.

College, school filing soon

Quad-City area voters will elect Board of Education members in Granite City, Venice and Madison school districts in April, and for the first time, will vote on the election of three members of the Belleville Area College board.

The school elections in all instances will be held on April 12. The filing period for candidates will open Feb. 28 and continue through March 21 for all school districts and for the BAC board election.

Petition forms may be obtained starting today for those wishing to file for three trustee posts on the Belleville Area College board.

All present BAC board members are from Belleville or the rural area surrounding Belleville. This year's election April 12 will mark the first opportunity for Quad-City residents to file for board posts, since this area officially was annexed into the BAC district during 1974.

Terms expiring are those of the chairman, Frederick Lutz and of Orison R. Seibert and Edward F. O'Malley.

Holder members will be Curt E. Eckert, Theodore F.

Gundlach, Mrs. Martha L. Sauer and Milton D. Smith.

The first day for filing petitions of candidacy, bearing at least 50 signatures, will be Feb. 28, and the filing period will close March 21. Candidates will have until March 25 to withdraw from the races.

Forms are available from, and should be filed with, Mrs. Ruthie Kombark, election secretary, at the BAC main offices during normal business hours.

BAC officials are attempting to have the election on the same ballots with the Granite City, Madison and Venice regular school elections, but that attempt has not yet received approval of the BAC board.

Two board members are to be elected in Granite City School District 9 where the terms of incumbents Monroe Worthen and A.L. "Pete" Metcalf expire this year. Petition forms are now available to candidates at the School Administration office, 20th and Adams streets.

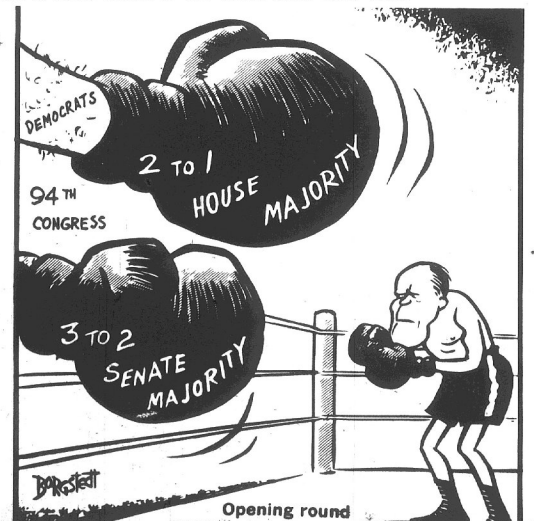

Other members of the seven-man School Board in Granite City, whose posts are not subject to election this year, are Carl Macios, Harold Davis, Norman Hall, George Moore and Don Stucke. Stucke is now board president.

Granite City district voters will not be required to elect a "rural" member of the board this year as three of the holdover members are from rural areas. The district must have at least two rural board members at all times. Present rural members are Macios, Davis and Hall.

Voters of Venice School District 3 are to elect two board members in the April 12 balloting. Terms expiring this year are those of incumbent members Willie Johnson and Fred Rumpf. Other Venice School Board members who will continue on the board are Richard Bailey, Jackie Leatherman, Elmer Taylor, Jack Tolliver and William Fechte.

Madison School District voters will choose two board members for the expiring terms of Board Members David Miskelley and Willie Walker. The other five board members are Chester McManaway, Harold Fisch, Donald Boyer, Elvers Johnson and Frank Eaves.

Opening round

Miss Rita Babic becomes Mrs. Robert A. Weygandt

The wedding of Miss Rita Francene Babic and Robert Allan Weygandt was solemnized at 6:30 Saturday evening at Our Lady Queen of Peace Church in Belleville.

A double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Maurice Driscoll.

The bride is a daughter of Mrs. Bernice Babic, 204 Sheraton Drive, Belleville, formerly of Madison, and the late Walter S. Babic. The groom is a son of Mrs. Sherdel Kraft, 625 S. Virginia Ave., Belleville, and the late Adolph Weygandt.

Escorted to the altar by Charles Seckon of Pridler, Minn., the bride wore a long gown lavishly accented with lace motifs on the bodice, high neckline and long fitted sleeves. She wore a lace Juliet cap to secure a cathedral length veil, bordered with wide scallop lace.

Miss Susan Babic, a sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids included Mrs. Rosemary Babic Allison, also a sister, Carmen Sarmiento Rigney, Patricia Blaise Heger and Janet Sward. The junior bridesmaid was Julie Stefanik, the bride's cousin.

Kimberly Senecyn, a cousin of the bride, was the flower girl. Matthew Weygandt, the groom's nephew, served as ringbearer.

May house tour planned

A progress report on the second annual house tour sponsored by the Downtown Neighborhood Restoration Society was the main topic of discussion at a meeting of the group at the YMCA.

Mrs. Vicky Melton, chairman of the event, announced the tour is planned Sunday, May 4, and will include six homes and three churches, all in the downtown area.

Also to be featured for the project will be crafts, craftsmen at work, refreshments, entertainment and transportation by a double-decker bus, Mrs. Melton reported.

The members agreed to establish a special membership classification for senior citizens (60 years or older) who reside in the boundaries of the society's area and an associate membership for residents in the city who wish to participate in the organization's projects.

Senior citizens' membership fee was set at $2 per year while other residents will pay a regular cost of $1 per month, per family or household.

Wall Padgett said the associate memberships will be offered at the same cost as the regular membership. The associate category is aimed at local businessmen outside of the geographical boundaries but who are interested in revitalizing the area.

Mrs. Gail Hug and Rich Pilch, who head the beautification committee, announced plans for the second cleanup campaign during April. They added they are trying to enlist aid from area citizens and business firms for manpower or equipment to police and clean up the streets, vacant lots, alleys and sidewalks in the downtown area.

Interested persons may contact Mrs. Hug at 876-1527 or Pilch at 877-3207. Padgett stressed that the DNRS, Inc., is a non-profit organization dedicated to the improvement of older property and is not a social group. Meetings which are conducted on the second Friday of each month, beginning at 8 o'clock, are open to the public.

Sherrill Lippincott marries John Sabo

Miss Sherrill Lippincott, 611 Pearl St., Alton, and John F. Sabo Jr. of Granite City exchanged wedding vows at 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon at the First Christian Church in Alton.

Burning tapers in branched candelabra and bouquets of pink and white gladioli provided the setting for the double ring ceremony, performed by the Rev. J. W. Jordan.

The bride is a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Charles (Maxine) Lippincott of Alton. Parents of the groom, Mr. and Mrs. John F. Sabo Sr., reside at 2353 Emert Ave.

Preceding the ceremony Lelia Thornburgh sang several nuptial selections. She was accompanied at the organ by Dr. Mary Blanche Jordan.

For her wedding, the former Miss Lippincott chose an A-line gown fashioned of white polyester organza with a detachable train, edged in Venice lace and pink insertion ribbon.

The decorative lace and ribbon trim accented the Empire bodice, high neckline and Victorian sleeves and encircled the skirt hem.

She wore a pearl headpiece created of pearl-etched netting to secure her elbow-length veil. Her bouquet was an arrangement of pink carnations and white gladioli.

Mrs. Melodie Bettis, a sister of the groom, served as honor attendant.

She selected a gown of hot pink organza designed with an Empire bodice. The A-line skirt was trimmed with white lace and an organza ruffle.

She wore a band of pink, burgundy and white pom poms in her hair and she carried a bouquet of the same flowers.

The groom chose his grandfather, Mitchell Elmore, as his best man.

Seating the guests were Dan Mueller and Mark Elmore.

The newly married couple received guests at a reception held at the Moose Lodge in Alton.

After a wedding trip to Colorado, they will reside in Alton.

A 1966 graduate of Alton High School, the former Miss Lippincott is attending Lewis and Clark Community College. County leases station

The Madison County Board has approved the leasing of a service station at St. Andrews and Vandavia streets in Edwardsville for a maximum of five years with the rent not to exceed $500 per month.

The station is to be used for fueling sheriff's department autos. It replaces another station the county formerly leased which has been sold.

Wilson Construction Co., Godfrey, was granted a contract to remodel the old freight elevator at the county courthouse at Edwardsville. The firm was the lowest of three bidders with an offer of $69,980.

The elevator is to be improved to provide service to the basement from which freight can be loaded for other floors. A ramp into the basement is to be constructed.

Formerly, heavy freight had to be lifted up the stairway to the main floor of the courthouse.

A committee of board members from Venice, Nameoki and Chouteau Townships was appointed to continue planning on the proposed Four Township Sanitary Sewer Program.

The county's holiday schedule was revised to allow Washington's Birthday to be celebrated on Monday, Feb. 17, rather than Wednesday, Feb. 19. The new date coincides with the national observance of that holiday.

Charles C. Losch of the Poag area was reappointed to a one-year term on the Madison County Board of Appeals. The board approved three special use permits for Quad City townships on the recommendations of the Zoning Board of Appeals.

A permit was granted to Norman Soechtig, owner and Hoeffken Brothers, Inc., purchaser, to establish a borrow pit fronting the Great River Road and behind the A. O. Smith

Corp. plant in an M-2 general manufacturing district of Nameoki Township. Gail Street and Martin Street received a permit to place a 12 by 70 feet mobile home at 3301 Arlington in State Park Place, an R-4 single family residential district.

Also approved was a permit for Joseph Steel, owner, and Mary Earle, occupant of a mobile home, to place a doublewide 24 by 60 feet mobile home at 5003 Lewis Ave., in an R-3 single family residential district of Chouteau Township.

Permit ok'd for GSI office

Issuance of a special use permit to General Steel Industries to establish an engineering office in the building formerly occupied by Maryland Market at 2205 Pontoon Road was approved by the Granite City Council last week. An ordinance authorizing the permit was enacted after Alderman Ronald Coleman, chairman of the council's Planning and Zoning Committee, presented a report by the City Plan Commission approving the GSI petition.

The plan commission approval followed a public hearing Jan. 9 in which representatives of General Steel explained the new engineering office will be used for some equipment testing, but will not result in any traffic impediments. The noise level will be zero and there will be no fumes, the commission was told.

Council members also approved a plan commission recommendation that a special use permit be issued to Granite Buenger, 2225 Pontoon Road, for operation of an accounting office in his home. The plan commission report said objections by neighbors to the Buenger petition were withdrawn after Buenger agreed that no new additions would be built as office space.

The GSI engineering office will be relocated in the building at 2205 Pontoon Road from the present quarters in the former castings division plant of General Steel. The GSI plant has been acquired by Granite City Steel, a division of National Steel Corp.

The engineering office employs about 16 persons. A company spokesman said the office would have been relocated in St. Louis if suitable quarters had not been found here.

The aldermen Monday night also received petitions signed by 117 persons asking increased safety measures at the West Pontoon railroad crossing where 17-year-old Gwenn Ellen Oliver was killed Dec. 28 in a car-train crash.

The petitions were turned over to the council by the Chamber of Commerce. Alderman Everett Morlen, chairman of the council's Traffic Committee, said he has been meeting with Chamber representatives to discuss steps that may be taken to improve protection at the crossing.

Miss Oliver's death was the second within 14 months. Toby Staicoff, 17, was killed in a similar crash Nov. 23, 1973. Petitioners charge that long waits at lowered railroad gates caused by switching operations and changes of train crews are an inducement to motorists to go around the gates.

The petitions were referred by the council to Morlen's Traffic Committee.

He also was taught the proper use of high explosives and the placement, deletion and disarming of mines.

Teamwork was emphasized while he learned to work as a member of a rifle squad, mortar squad or direct fire section. Each team member completed the training well qualified to perform other jobs in case of casualties.

Hearing on statewide election judge manual

Michael E. Lavelle, chairman of the State Board of Elections, has announced a series of public hearings on a proposed election judges' manual to be held in four locations in the state, including the Mississippi-Illinois Room of the University Center of Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville at 10 a.m. Wednesday, Jan. 29.

Lavelle pointed out that drafts of the proposed manual are being sent to local election authorities throughout the state for them to study prior to the hearings.

The hearings will provide election authorities as well as the general public opportunities to comment and make suggestions for changes before preparation of the final draft, he said.

"One of the mandates of the State Board is to bring uniformity to election procedures in Illinois. A uniform manual for election judges is one step in the preventive approach taken by the State Board to mitigate election difficulties that often arise from the uneven administration of election law and misunderstanding of proper election procedures.

"The State Board of Elections expects these hearings also to result in an exchange of information with local election authorities that will benefit us in preparing the final draft."

Two win oratorical contest

Crescenda Angle and Larry Libby, sophomores at Granite City High School North, won the Granite City Optimist Club oratorical contest Thursday noon in the YMCA.

Sandra Payne of GCHS South, John Kastele and Betsy Slate, both of North, also participated.

The program was under the direction of Dr. F. Scott Hendrickson, youth committee chairman for the club.

Judges were Mark Yehling, district boy scout executive; Miss Tracey Dunn and Miss Pat Goehy, both of the Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville speech department.

The young people did an excellent job and were very close in the judging," Dr. Hendrickson said.

Parents of several of the contestants attended the luncheon.

The theme given the speakers on which to talk for five minutes was "Give me your hand."

Libby related this to improving nursing homes, and Miss Angle talked against abortions.

THE SCHERMER BULLETIN

WE HAD A LOT OF FAVORABLE COMMENTS on last week's bulletin about carryout service. We are delighted at least that among our own customers our efforts are appreciated.

Last week was a big week in the store. Stewing Hens at 29¢ created quite a furor. Just like old times some customers said. Well, we've told you that we search real hard for items like these and our weekly specials bear this out.

Oh, yes. For those of you who missed out on the Crab Meat deal (we sold the whole deal in one day) we talked the Chicago supplier out of a large shipment at the bargain price, so probably this week it will come in. We have enough coming to sell you any quantity you want and we know now that this will be the last shipment because we talked him into the low price by purchasing all that he had.

Some of the real buys in the meat department like Riblets, Turkey Drumsticks and Wings, etc., are starting to move real well. We have lots of un-advertised specials everyday in all departments. If you're not a "Schermers Regular", try us. YOU'LL LIKE IT!!

Partee praises Sen. Vadalabene

Senator Sam M. Vadalabene, D-Edwardsville, said Friday he is "pleased and honored" that he has been selected as chairman of the Senate Executive Appointments and Administration Committee for the 79th General Assembly. The selection was accompanied by high praise from the Senate president.

Vadalabene, an eight-year veteran of the state legislature, was appointed to the committee chairmanship last week by the Senate Committee on Committees.

Of the 15 standing committees in the Illinois Senate, this is one of the top two or three in terms of responsibility and influence. It must consider all gubernatorial nominations requiring Senate approval, and it also reviews major administrative measures.

Besides the chairmanship of Executive Appointments and Administration, Sen. Vadalabene was appointed to the Committees on Appropriations; Pensions, Personnel and Veterans Affairs; and Transportation.

"I am extremely happy with my committee assignments," the local legislator commented. "They are all major committees that will enable me to do as much as possible for Downstate Illinois, particularly the area which I serve."

Senate President Cecil A. Partee, whose influence was instrumental in landing the assignments of Vadalabene, commented: "Not only is Sam Vadalabene truly one of the most popular legislators in Springfield, he is one of the most influential. He is able, hard-working and does an outstanding job representing his constituents and citizens throughout the rest of the state. His excellent legislative work in the past, including sponsorship of major legislation, has certainly earned him the right to these key assignments," Pres. Partee said.

Authorize repairs at Venice school

Granite Sheet Metal Works was authorized by the Venice School Board to replace three copper downspouts with plastic pipes at a cost of $299 during a meeting last week. Supt. of Schools Robert N. Vickers said the original pipes were stolen from the high school building during the Christmas holidays.

The resignation of Miss Margaret Booth, a biology-mathematics teacher at Venice High School for 28½ years, was accepted, and board members approved a proposal from the Belleville Area College to jointly use and share the cost of the Venice district facilities for the April election.

The sum of $75,000 from a total of $460,000 in anticipation warrants, authorized by the board last month, was transferred to the district education fund, and the school calendar was changed to give Venice pupils their spring holiday from March 27 to April 1.

Debra Joanne Hillis wed in candlelight ceremony

Altar bouquets of white mums and roses in tall urns and burning candles in tapered candelabra provided the setting for the evening wedding on Jan. 17 at the Church of God, Orville Avenue and Vine Boulevard, of Miss Debra Joanne Hillis and David William Morrison.

Preceding the arrival of the bride, Miss Donna Hindman sang "Wedding Prayer" and "Twelfth of Never." She was accompanied by organist Jerry Malone.

The Rev. O. J. Cloninger officiated at the double ring ceremony at 7:30.

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Hillis, 4925 Redwood Lane. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. William C. Morrison, 809 Heather St., Richmond, British Columbia, Canada.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attired in a floor length gown of white tulle and lace with a high collar and a long, gathered sheer train.

The high neckline was edged with ruffled lace and lace "scallop" marked the Empire waist and formed caplets over the long, gathered sheer sleeves.

Matching lace formed a front panel on the skirt and bordered the cathedral train.

Her veil of bridal illusion was secured to a pearl-encrusted headpiece and she carried a cascade of white carnations and pastel blue baby's breath.

Miss Debra Kay Kent, maid of honor, chose a full length dress of midnight blue velvet made with a high collar and long tapered sleeves. She held a basket of white carnations and blue baby's breath, festooned with matching ribbons.

The groom chose Ralph Daly, a brother of the bride, and David Hindman served as ushers. Timothy Hillis, a nephew of the bride, was the ringbearer.

Tammy Beal, the flower girl, was dressed in a long blue and white frock enhanced with a white lace pinafore. She wore a blue and white bonnet and carried a basket of blue and white flowers.

A reception was held in the church educational building after the ceremony.

Emerson PTA meets Tuesday

Emerson School PTA has rescheduled the January meeting for 7:30 p.m. Tuesday, Mrs. Sheila McLaughlin, president, announced.

The meeting was postponed earlier this month due to inclement weather.

Guest speaker will be Janette Mueller, assistant extension advisor for the Madison County Homemakers Extension Association, who will review basic principles of the metric system, now being introduced into the complete system.

The opening flag ceremony will be presented by a Browne troop, led by Mrs. Judy Padgett, the PTA officer reported.

Entertainment will include a musical program, provided by Emerson Fifth and Sixth grade students.

Geroff-Lintker betrothal

News has been received from Venedy, Ill., of the engagement of Miss Rosemary Lintker and Robert Geroff of Granite City. The announcement was made by the bride-elect's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Raphael Lintker of Venedy. Parents of the prospective groom are Dr. and Mrs. Steve Geroff, 3822 Princeton Drive.

Miss Lintker, a 1972 graduate of Oakville Community High School, presently is employed by the National Collection Group in St. Louis.

Her fiancé was graduated in 1970 from Granite City High School and Bailey Technical School, St. Louis. Currently, he is attending Lewis and Clark Community College and works as an apprentice millwright for Chemetco Metals Corp., Granite City.

Plans are being completed by the engaged couple for a May 2 wedding at St. Liborius Catholic Church.

Amvets 51 hosts state commander

Illinois Amvets Commander Kenneth Mullins of Champaign was a guest at the Amvets' Fifth Division meeting held last week at Amvets Post 51 clubhouse, 5100 Lakeview Drive.

Attending the meeting were members from the Mount Vernon and Harrisburg posts and auxiliary units. A buffet luncheon was prepared and served by Mr. and Mrs. Ben Sanders of Post 51.

Mrs. Adam (Jackie) Petras of Granite City, Fifth Division Auxiliary president, conducted the auxiliary business session. Officers presented quarterly reports and nominations were submitted for new divisional leaders. An election was scheduled for March 16 at the Madison Amvets Post Home.

Adam Petras, 25th District commander and a member of Post 51, announced his candidacy for the office of commander of Divisions 3, 4 and 5. The election will be conducted at the annual state convention.

Mr. and Mrs. Adam Petras and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Petras reported plans to attend a meeting of the Amvets state executive committee this weekend in Springfield.

The remainder of the evening was spent socially with auxiliary members staging their annual "Krazy Auction," followed by dancing and refreshments.

Recruiters judge Pack 22 cubs

Recruiters from the local offices of three military services formed the inspection panel of judges at Cub Pack 22's annual uniform inspection night held at Frohardt School.

The special guests were Staff Sergeant V. L. Thomas, U. S. Marine Corps; Staff Sergeant John Keene, U. S. Army; and Petty Officer First Class Ray Deiters, U. S. Navy. All head their respective services' recruiting offices in Granite City.

Also serving as inspectors were Henry Lamb, Don McAlister, Bob Pare and Cubmaster Lew Frazar. Cleanliness and neatness were the main objectives of the judging, with placement of scout insignias on uniforms in accordance with regulations also emphasized.

Cubs achieving a 100-point score will receive a uniform inspection award card. A certificate will be presented to the den recording the highest point average.

Den 2 cubs directed by Mrs. Trudy Mayo conducted the opening flag ceremony and led the pledge of allegiance.

Cubmaster Frazar introduced Mrs. Dorothy Goodrich, new awards chairman for the pack, and presided at a Bobcat ceremony for Keith Young.

Achievement awards were given to Cub Scout Jeff Hendon, one-year service pin, and to Webelos John Large, Bear and craftsman badges; and Danny Ashby, John Boneau, Rocky Cockrum, Steve Giese and Todd Goodrich, craftsman badges.

Pack 22's annual blue and gold dinner will take place at 6:30 p.m. Feb. 20, at Niedringhaus United Methodist Church, Ralph Wilson, chairman, reported.

Chairmen were appointed for other activities, including Don McAlister, pinewood derby, April 17; Jim Schieber, bicycle rodeo, May 22 and Bob Pare, June picnic.

All scouting units sponsored at Frohardt School will present the program at the March 18 PTA meeting. Frazar announced.

Den 4 mothers served refreshments in the cafeteria to conclude the meeting.

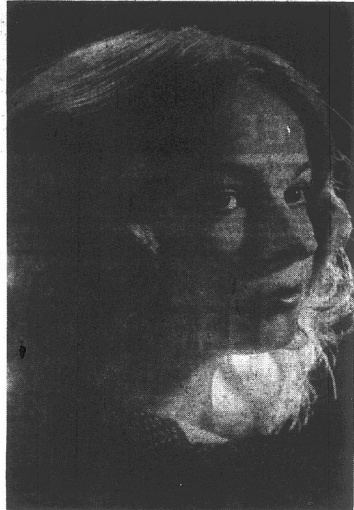

Marshall parents view gym program

A demonstration by third grade students using gymnastic equipment was presented last week at a meeting of Marshall PTA.

The program was given under the direction of Mrs. Judy Collins, Marshall physical education teacher, whose pupils performed dances using colored balls and demonstrated specific exercises.

William Schriber, president, conducted the business meeting. He announced the annual school carnival will be held on Feb. 18.

Young marrieds complete contest

A group of young married couples gathered last week at Central Baptist Church for a "soul winning" banquet. An open discussion period, ping pong tournament and social evening followed.

Members of the group, divided into two competing teams, had participated in a program designed to encourage others to express professions of faith during church services.

A fried chicken dinner was served by the losing squad to about 30 persons.

Decorations in the church hall reflected a "Fishers of Men" theme. Nets and colorful paper fish were suspended from the walls and centerpieces on the dinner tables were arrangements of different size seashells and tiny fishing boats.

Ping pong tournament winners include: Men's singles — Frank Hayes, Jim Hall and Kurt Beard; women's singles — Martha Boner, Harriet Hall and Mary Lamb; and doubles — Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hayes, first; Mr. and Mrs. Jim Hall, second and the Rev. and Mrs. John Lamb, third.

In Memoriam 33

In Loving Memory of ROBERT ELLINGSON. January 28, 1974. I seem to see in the soft, dim light a face I loved the best. And think of him when the sun's last ray Goes down in the far off west. I live no less as the time passes on Than I did on the day of your going. For absence can never close the door of my heart. And the lamp of my love is still glowing. Your heart was the truest in all the wide world. Your love the best to recall; For no one on earth could take your place. You are still the dearest of all. Sadly missed by Wife, Children and Grandchildren. 33 127
